

The Society for Histochemistry announces
Robert Feulgen Prize - 2015

The Society invites the scientists to apply for the 2015 Robert Feulgen Prize. The prize is awarded for an outstanding achievement in the field of histochemistry. The contributions may be either towards the development of new histochemical and cytochemical techniques or in the application of existing technology towards solving important problems in biology and/or medicine. Addressed are scientists working in microscopical sciences (in the widest sense) as well as in biochemistry, cell biology, endocrinology, in situ molecular techniques, and neurosciences. Scientists in their mid-career (assistant or associate professor, priv. doz.) are encouraged to apply. The prize is not intended for lifetime contributions. The Prize consists of a monetary prize of 2,000 EUR.

All applications should be submitted before 31 January 2015 via the electronic submission system.

The application should contain a short curriculum vitae, a 1,000 word summary of the contributions of the applicant and PDF reprints of the pertinent publications.

Full description of conditions is available on the Society website.
